CanyonRanch.
The Power of Possibility.
Coming here just changed something inside of me.
... I was totally sedentary, I didn’t like to move at all.
I go to the gym five days a week now. I love it!

In most medical schools, physicians aren’t taught about wellness, they’re taught about illness. The Canyon Ranch experience is unique. You get both information and hands-on experience, which you can use in counseling patients and improving your own health. It’s very valuable.
